

Real Estate Dispute Case No. 125 – Riyadh Court

This judgment relates to Case No. 125 of the year 2025, heard before the Riyadh General Court.

The claimant, Ahmed Al-Fahad, filed a civil claim against the defendant, Khalid Al-Saleh, seeking confirmation of ownership and eviction related to a residential land plot located in the Al-Narjis District of Riyadh, measuring approximately 850 square meters.

The claimant submitted a notarized sale contract dated March 12, 2019, registered with the Ministry of Justice land registry. He argued that the defendant unlawfully occupied the land in January 2024 without legal title.

The defendant asserted that the land was assigned to him under an informal family agreement predating the registered sale.

After reviewing the registry records, witness statements, and expert land survey report, the court determined that the claimant's registered title prevailed over any informal arrangements.

The court ruled in favor of the claimant and ordered the defendant to vacate the property within thirty days.

An enforcement review hearing was scheduled for September 14, 2025.
